

Continuing Services:
MEP Consultant 2012

NOTICE OF CANCELLATION

FIU has terminated the current selection process for the MEP Continuing Services Consultant effective immediately. FIU has decided to reappoint the Certification and Selection committee and intends to re-advertise a separate and new selection process for the MEP Continuing Services Consultant in the near future.

All FIUPQS applications received on April 13, 2012, are no longer under consideration for FIU's consultant selection. When FIU decides to advertise a new Notice to Professional Consultants for the MEP Continuing Services Consultant, a new FIUPQS application submittal will be required.
